Q2. Will there be a new solicitation issued without the word DRAFT across as well as the due date and time listed?

A2. Yes, a final solicitation will be posted without the word DRAFT in the back ground.

Q3. I have read the draft solicitation posted on 21 February 2013. It states that a site visit will take place on March 14, 2013 and offerors need to notify you by March 6 of attendance. I assume that since this is only a draft the site visit date will be changed to a later date and included in the final solicitation. Is that correct?

A3. The site visit/pre-bid conference happens between the posted draft RFP and the Final RFP. This draft is to allow the offerors a chance to ask questions and comment on the RFP. The site visit will stay the same at March 14, 2013. If you plan on attending please email me your badging information at patricia.f.mendoza@nasa.gov. Badging information is located in Section L, L.7 Pre-proposal/Pre-bid Conference, page L-4.

Q4. We were just looking at the draft RFP and saw that there is a Pre-proposal site visit on March 14th. Since this is a draft RFP should we make plans to be at the site visit on that date? Or will that date change once the RFP is issued as the final RFP?

A4. Please see the answer to your question in the answer to question 3.

Q5. Will it be possible to use an existing CCASS reference in place of the Attachment J5 Past Performance Questionnaire? Our references appreciate it when a CCASS can be used since they took the time to fill it out and post it in the system.

A5. Please have your references fill out the Past Performance Questionnaire. It has different questions than the CCASS does. We will also be checking CCASS for any inputted information on the offerors that past the first factor, Construction Compliant.

Q.6 In reference to the draft RFP in Section L it indicates that there is a Pre-proposal /site visit on March 14th. Since this is a draft RFP is this the scheduled date for the site visit? Or will that date change once the final RFP is issued?

A.7 Please see the answer to your question in the answer to question 3.

Q.7 Please confirm that the due date for the proposal is now May 8th which is listed as the current response date.

A.8 Yes, the proposal due date is May 8th, 2013.
